- A) September 3
- B) September 7
- C) September 11
- D) September 9
- E) September 10

Answer

C) September 11

Important Days

National Forest Martyrs Day

- Every year on 11 September, National Forest Martyrs Day is marked and observed in the country.
- It is a day to pay tribute to those who sacrificed their lives to protect the wildlife, forests, and jungles in India.
- There are still many communities and villages where the only source of livelihood is forest.
- Also, people protect the flora and fauna as their own family.
- Many even risk their lives guarding and protecting it; which is why the day is observed to pay tribute and hail their contributions.

History behind National Forest Martyrs Day:

- After the Ministry of Environment and Forest made the declaration, this day officially came into existence and it was in the year 2013.
- The ministry selected this date (11 September) because, on this day in 1730, the Khejarli massacre took place in the country.
- On the orders of the then king Maharaja Abhay Singh of Rajasthan, the soldiers started cutting trees to provide wood for a new palace.

Important Days

History behind National Forest Martyrs Day:

- During that time, a woman identified as Amrita Devi offered her head instead of the sacred Khejarli tree.
- Angry over the act, people in that village rose in protest and offered their lives in place of trees.
- After beheading her, the soldiers went on to slaughter over 350 people including Amrita's children.

Important Days

History behind National Forest Martyrs Day:

- On hearing this massacre, the shocked king instantly ordered his soldiers to stop killing the people and apologised to them who belonged to the Bishnoi community.
- Along with his apology, King Maharaja Abhay Singh made a declaration stating that no cutting of trees and killing of animals will take place in areas that are around the Bishnoi villages.

Important Days

World EV Day

- World EV Day is observed on September 9 every year.
- The day marks the celebration of e-mobility.
- Special awareness campaigns are organised globally to educate people about the benefits of electric vehicles.
- World EV Day was an initiative created by sustainability media company Green.TV.
