- A) October 5
- B) October 1
- C) October 3
- D) October 4
- E) October 2

Answer

E) October 2

International day of Non-Violence

Important Days

Explanation

- The International Day of Non-Violence is observed on October 2, the birth anniversary of India's Independence movement hero Mahatma Gandhi.
- The resolution reaffirms the universal relevance of the principle of non-violence and the desire to secure a culture of peace, tolerance, understanding and non-violence.
- "Non-violence is the greatest force at the disposal of mankind. It is mightier than the mightiest weapon of destruction devised by the ingenuity of man," Gandhi had said.

Important Days

History of International Day of Non-Violence

- The resolution in the UNGA was passed with a goal to secure a culture of peace, tolerance and understanding with the help of the teachings of Gandhi who inspired millions to adopt the path of non-violence.
- It was in January 2004 that Iranian Noble Laureate Shirin Ebadi proposed the idea for the day.
- The idea attracted many Congress leaders, who in 2007 called upon the UN to adopt the idea.
