- A) Karnataka
- B) Gujarat
- C) Tamil Nadu
- D) Jharkhand
- E) Sikkim

Answer

B) Gujarat

Explanation

- Gujarat Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel launched a scheme to provide electric two-wheelers at subsidized rates to construction and industrial workers of the state.
- He launched the 'Go-Green' scheme and its portal at a function held at Mahatma Mandir here and urged workers to take benefit of the initiative, which is aimed at reducing fuel bills and saving the environment by curbing vehicular pollution.
- Under the scheme, a worker of the organized sector, such as an industrial laborer, would get a subsidy of 30 percent on the vehicle's price of Rs 30,000, whichever is less, on the purchase of battery-powered two-wheelers.

Explanation

- For workers in the construction sector, the criteria are 50 percent subsidy or Rs30,000, whichever is less, a state government release said, adding that e-vehicle buyers of both these categories would get a one-time subsidy on RTO registration and road tax.
- It said eligible workers can use the portal launched during the day to select and book electric two-wheelers by uploading required documents online and can take delivery from the dealer after their application is approved.
