➤ World Bank unveils ___ billion support aid for poorest nation to recover from Covid-19 crisis?

A) 33

B) 43

C) 53

D) 73

E) 93

Answer

E) 93

Explanation

- The World Bank's fund to help the world's poorest nations got a $93 billion injection of cash to help scale up aid for pandemic recovery and other programs, the institution announced.
- It was the biggest replenishment ever for the International Development Association (IDA), which provides grants for 74 countries, most of which are in Africa, the Washington-based development lender said.
- The package includes $23.5 billion of contributions from 48 high- and middle-income countries as well as financing raised in the capital markets and the World Bank's own contributions, according to a statement.

Explanation

- Today's generous commitment by our partners is a critical step toward supporting poor countries in their efforts to recover from the Covid-19 crisis, World Bank President David Malpass said.
- The IDA fund is replenished every three years, but because of the pandemic, the latest cash injection was pulled forward by a year and will be in place through June 2025.
- The World Bank said the funds will help countries better prepare for future crises, including pandemics, financial shocks, and natural disasters.
- While the funds will support countries globally, resources are increasingly going to Africa, which will receive about 70 percent of the funding.
