Important Days

National Girl Child Day 2022:

- Gender discrimination is a major problem that girls face throughout their life.
- National Girl Child Day is observed every year in India on January 24 to promote awareness about the rights of a girl child and to promote the importance of their education, health, and nutrition.
- The day is in line with with government campaigns and initiatives such as Beti Bachao Beti Padhao, Save the Girl Child, free/subsidized education, and women's reservations in colleges and universities.

Important Days

National Girl Child Day 2022:

- The National Girl Child Day is celebrated with events and programs based on annual themes. 'Empowering Girls for a Brighter Tomorrow' was the theme for 2019.
- In 2020, the theme was "My voice, Our Common Future."
- 'Digital Generation, Our Generation' was the theme for National Girl Child Day in 2021.

Smriti Mandhana named ICC women's Cricketer of the Year

- India's swashbuckling opener Smriti Mandhana was on Monday named the ICC Women's Cricketer of the Year for the second time for her stellar run of form across all formats in 2021.
- Mandhana, who also made it to the ICC T20 women's Team of the Year, pipped fellow nominees Tammy Beaumont of England, Lizelle Lee of South Africa and Gaby Lewis of Ireland for the to the top award – the Rachael Heyhoe Flint Trophy, the ICC said in a statement.

Smriti Mandhana named ICC women's Cricketer of the Year

- The Southpaw had won the award in 2018 as well when she was also named the women's ODI Cricketer of the Year, making her only the second women's player to win the highest individual distinction in the overall category.
- The Indian T20 vice-captain is only the second India woman player to bag an ICC award after veteran fast bowler Jhulan Goswami, who was named the ICC Player of the Year in 2007.
- Mandhana made India's first-ever pink-ball Test even more memorable by smashing her maiden century in the longest format.

Babar Azam named ICC Men's ODI Cricketer of 2021:

- Pakistan skipper Babar Azam has been named as ICC Men's ODI Cricketer of 2021.
- Babar Azam might have played only six ODIs in 2021, but he made vital contributions in the two series that Pakistan played this year.
- He was the second-highest run-scorer with 228 runs and was the Player of the Match in both of Pakistan's wins in the 2-1 series victory against South Africa.
- The architect of Pakistan's chase of 274 in the first ODI, Babar made a century and laid the foundation with an 82-ball 94 in the final ODI where the visitors posted 320 batting first.

Babar Azam named ICC Men's ODI Cricketer of 2021:

- He was the lone warrior for Pakistan when they were swept by England 3-0.
- He accumulated 177 runs in three games but found no support none of the other batters managed to score more than 100 in the series.
- Azam's best performance this year came in a losing cause in the final ODI against England.
- With the series already lost, Pakistan were playing for pride as well as crucial ICC Cricket World Cup Super League points in the third ODI at Birmingham.
- Put in to bat first, Pakistan posted 331, with Babar scoring close to half of the team's runs.

Lizelle Lee named ICC Women's ODI Cricketer of 2021:

- South Africa batter Lizelle Lee was named as ICC Women's ODI Cricketer of 2021, after she finished the year as the highest run-scorer in 50-over format.
- Lee's year got off to a less-than-ideal start, getting out for a duck in the first ODI against Pakistan, but she came back strongly with two scores of 40+ and played a vital role in South Africa's sweep.

England captain Root named ICC Men's Test Cricketer of the Year for 2021

- Joe Root has been named the ICC Men's Test Cricketer of the Year for 2021.
- The England captain scored 1,708 runs in Test cricket in 2021, the third highest tally by a single batter in a year in history.
- He joins Sir Alastair Cook (2011), his predecessor as captain, as the only English cricketers to take the annual prize.

ICC Awards: Shaheen Shah Afridi wins the Sir Garfield Sobers Award for the Men's Player of the Year for 2021

- Men's Cricketer of the Year for 2021.
- Shaheen took 78 wickets in 36 internationals at an average of 22.20 in 2021.
- The tall Pakistani quick was on fire throughout 2021, knocking some of the best batters over across all three formats of the game.
- He especially had a year to remember in Tests and T20Is, reaching his peak during the ICC Men's T20 World Cup in UAE, where he impressed one and all with his sheer speed and skills.

- In order to cater to India’s increasing digital penetration, CGHS has laid emphasis on delivery of services through various online channels.

CCI imposes penalty on maritime transport companies for indulging in cartelisation:

- The Competition Commission of India ('CCI') passed a final order against four maritime transport companies namely Nippon Yusen Kabushiki Kaisha ('NYK Line'), Kawasaki Kisen Kaisha Ltd. ('K-Line'), Mitsui O.S.K. Lines Ltd. ('MOL') and Nissan Motor Car Carrier Company ('NMCC') for indulging in cartelisation in the provision of maritime motor vehicle transport services to automobile Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) for various trade routes. Amongst these four companies, NYK Line, MOL and NMCC were lesser penalty applicants before CCI.

CCI imposes penalty on maritime transport companies for indulging in cartelisation:

- The evaluation of available evidence revealed that there was an agreement between NYK Line, K-Line, MOL and NMCC with the objective of enforcement of “Respect Rule”, which implied avoiding competition with each other and protecting the business of incumbent carrier with the respective OEM.
- To achieve the said objective, the maritime transport companies resorted to multi-lateral as well as bilateral contacts/ meetings/ e-mails with each other to share commercially sensitive information which, inter alia, included freight rates.
- They also aimed to preserve their position in the market and maintain or increase prices, including by resisting requests for price reduction from certain OEMs.

CCI imposes penalty on maritime transport companies for indulging in cartelisation:

- Accordingly, based on a cumulative assessment of the evidence, the Commission held all the four opposite parties, i.e., NYK Line, K-Line, MOL and NMCC, guilty of contravention of the provisions of Section 3 of the Competition Act, 2002 (the Act), which prohibits anti-competitive agreements including cartels, from 2009 to 2012.
- Further, 14 individuals of NYK Line, 10 individuals of K-Line, 6 individuals of MOL and 3 individuals of NMCC, were also held liable for the anti-competitive conduct of their respective companies, in terms of the provisions of Section 48 of the Act.

CCI imposes penalty on maritime transport companies for indulging in cartelisation:

- As three companies filed lesser penalty applications, the Commission gave benefit of reduction in penalty by 100% to NYK Line and its individuals, 50% to MOL and its individuals and 30% to NMCC and its individuals.
- Accordingly, the Commission directed K-Line, MOL and NMCC to pay penalties to the tune of approx. INR 24.23 crores, INR 10.12 crores and INR 28.69 crores respectively, besides passing a cease-and-desist order.
