Which bank has recently launched a private banking business in India specifically catering to high-net-worth individuals?

- A) State Bank of India (SBI)
- B) HDFC Bank
- C) ICICI Bank
- D) HSBC
- E) Axis Bank

Answer
D) HSBC

HSBC

Explanation

- London-based HSBC has launched its global private banking business in India to serve high-net-worth (HNW) and ultra-high-net-worth (UHNW) professionals, entrepreneurs and their families.
- The new business is aimed at clients with investable assets of more than $2 million
- HSBC Group acquired L&T Investment Management in 2022, now called HSBC Mutual Fund. It has also been working to enhance digital, payment, lending and international banking services, and provide life insurance through its joint venture, Canara HSBC Life.
- This launch follows HSBC Group introducing global private banking in Thailand in 2021, and in Mexico, UAE, and Chengdu, Hangzhou and Shenzhen in mainland China in 2022.

Which startup has received the NBFC (Non-Banking Financial Company) license from the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) for education financing?

- A) Propelld
- B) Paytm
- C) Byju's
- D) UpGrad
- E) Unacademy

Answer

A) Propelld

Explanation

- Education lending Fintech startup, Propelld procured a non-banking financial company (NBFC) license from the Reserve Bank of India (RBI).
- With this, the company aims to disburse loans worth 2000 Cr by FY24 and looks to bolster its direct lending proposition.
- Up until now, Propelld has provided lending solutions by partnering with NBFCs. With the newly obtained license, the company will also have the ability to lend directly along with functioning as a loan service provider (LSP).
- Through its collaboration with over 2000 educational institutes, Propelld has already assisted more than 200,000 customers in achieving their educational aspirations.

Explanation

- The acquisition of the NBFC license has the potential to enhance Propelld's customer delight, particularly in tier two and tier three cities, by providing improved services such as tailored loan products, flexible repayment options and competitive interest rates to more diverse borrower profiles.

Which two organizations have partnered for a FASTag-based smart parking solution at Varanasi airport?

Which institution successfully created India's first 100% Dimethyl Ether (DME)-fueled tractor for both on- and off-road operations?

- A) IIT Bombay
- B) IIT Delhi
- C) IIT Madras
- D) IIT Kanpur
- E) IIT Kharagpur

Answer
D) IIT Kanpur

Explanation

- Researchers at IIT Kanpur have successfully created India's first 100% Dimethyl Ether (DME)-fueled tractor for both on- and off-road operations.
- This shows a significant step toward a sustainable and renewable fuel-based transportation system.
- This discovery opens a new chapter in the country's search for alternative fuels in order to minimize reliance on imported crude oil and promote a greener future.
- DME, a renewable and indigenous fuel, has been used for vehicle power by a number of countries, including Japan, the United States, China, Sweden, Denmark, and Korea. However, until today, the application of DME in internal combustion (IC) engines has remained unexplored in India.

Explanation

- The Science and Engineering Research Board (SERB), an institution under the Department of Science and Technology (DST), funded the research, which was connected with NITI Ayog's 'Methanol Economy' program.
- The engine prototype that was built was successfully mounted in a tractor and operated by the industrial partner, TAFE TMTL, Alwar.

- A) Elena Geo Systems
- B) GeoNav Systems
- C) NaviTech Solutions
- D) SatNav Technologies
- E) GeoTrack Innovations

Answer

A) Elena Geo Systems

Explanation

- In a major boost to India's pursuit of 'aatmanirbharta' (self-reliance) in navigation applications and services, Bengaluru-based firm Elena Geo Systems launched a handheld NavIC-based navigator.
- The navigation device, which can provide precise directions in tasks related to infrastructure projects involving railway, land survey, telecoms and hydrocarbon exploration, was unveiled on the occasion of World Telecom Day in New Delhi.
- This comes nearly a month after the company launched a Navigation with Indian Constellation (NavIC)-based indigenously designed chip to meet the requirements of services ranging from cab aggregators to the country's defence forces.

Explanation

The Telecom Centres of Excellence India (TCOE India), the implementing agency for the DCIS scheme, had extended a grant of Rs 50 lakh under to the company for the project, with the total cost of developing the hardware coming to around Rs 2 crore.

Incubated at IIT-Kharagpur in 2012 as a research & development company, Elena Geo Systems seeks to transform navigation in India by providing end-to-end NavIC-enabled services and products.
