OBITUARY

Which former US astronaut recently passed away at the age of 95?

- A) Neil Armstrong
- B) Buzz Aldrin
- C) Michael Collins
- D) John Glenn
- E) Frank Borman

Answer

E) Frank Borman

OBITUARY

Explanation

- Former U.S. astronaut Frank Borman, who made history by commanding the first manned flight to circle the moon and later piloted Eastern Airlines as chairman in severe economic turbulence, has died at the age of 95
- Born in Gary, Indiana, on March 14, 1928, he was the oldest American astronaut still living; that mantle now passes to Jim Lovell, who is also 95 but eleven days younger.
- He became an Air Force fighter pilot after graduating from the U.S. Military Academy in 1950.
- He trained as a test pilot before being selected for NASA's second astronaut program in 1962
- Three years later he was commander on Apollo 8 - the first lunar orbital mission - and made 10 trips around the moon with his two crewmates on a mission that stretched over Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. The mission yielded a stunning and unprecedented photo by Borman's crewmate William Anders that came to be known as "Earthrise" - a blue and white Earth seen as a partial orb rising over the blank lunar surface.

Explanation

- In 1970 Borman retired from NASA and the Air Force and became an adviser to Eastern Airlines. By 1975 he had become the airline's president and a year later was named chairman
- In 1984 Eastern posted a five-year loss of $380 million and Borman came under criticism for proceeding with a costly fleet-modernization program despite the flow of red ink.
- In 1986, Borman announced his retirement

What is the key requirement for websites to be eligible under the newly unveiled digital advertisement policy for publicity campaigns by the government?

- A) Minimum age of 5 years
- B) At least 1 million unique users per month
- C) Presence on social media platforms
- D) Minimum of 2.5 lakh unique users per month
- E) Government affiliation

Answer

D) Minimum of 2.5 lakh unique users per month

Explanation

- The government unveiled a digital advertisement policy that will enable websites with a minimum of 2.5 lakh unique users per month and other digital platforms such as OTT and podcasts to get empanelled for publicity campaigns.
- The policy, unveiled by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, will enable and empower the Central Bureau of Communication (CBC) to undertake campaigns in the digital media space.
- Besides rationalising the process of empanelling websites, the CBC now for the first time will be able to channelize its public service campaign messages through mobile applications
- The policy also introduces competitive bidding for rate discovery, ensuring transparency and efficiency. Rates discovered through this process will remain valid for three years and will be applicable to all eligible agencies.
- According to TRAI's Indian Telecom Services Performance Indicators January–March 2023, the internet penetration in India was more than 880 million, and the number of telecom subscribers was over 1,172 million.

Explanation

- The policy also empowers CBC to empanel digital media agencies to enhance its outreach through the various platforms.
- For empanelment with the CBC, websites and mobile applications have been classified into four categories – more than 20 million unique users (A+), between 10 and 20 million unique users (A), 5-10 million unique users (B) and 0.25-5 million unique users (C).
- OTT platforms have been classified into two categories – more than 2.5 million unique users in category A and those with 0.5 to 2.5 million unique users in category B.
- Podcasters or digital audio platforms should have a minimum of five lakh unique users to be eligible for empanelment with the CBC. Such platforms too have been classified as 'A' which have more than 2.5 million unique users and 'B' with unique users between 0.5-2.5 million.
- The policy also empowers CBC to on board New and Innovative Communication Platforms in the Digital Space with the approval of a duly constituted committee.
- It also introduces competitive bidding for rate discovery, ensuring transparency and efficiency. Rates discovered through this process will remain valid for three years and will be applicable to all eligible agencies.

Kerala Financial Corporation (KFC) has launched a platform called "Kerala MSME Bill Discounting Platform." What is the primary objective of this platform?

- A) Investment in Startups
- B) Home Loan Services
- C) Real Estate Transactions
- D) Ensuring liquidity to MSMEs by discounting their outstanding bills
- E) Agricultural Loan Disbursement

Answer

D) Ensuring liquidity to MSMEs by discounting their outstanding bills

Explanation

- Kerala Financial Corporation (KFC), a prominent Kerala-based lending institution, has launched Kerala MSME Bill Discounting Platform aiming to ensure liquidity to MSMEs by discounting their outstanding bills.
- The State-Budget declared platform was inaugurated by Adv.KN Balagopal, Minister for Finance in a function held.
- The function was presided over by Adv.Antony Raju, Minister for Transport.
- KFC partnered with Receivables Exchange of India Limited (RXIL), an RBI approved company to start the platform. RXIL is the venture of the Small Industries Development Bank of India (SIDBI) & National Stock Exchange of India (NSE).

Explanation

- Under the scheme, the bills accepted by the Department/ PSU/ Corporations can be discounted and KFC would pay the eligible amount to the supplier within 48 hours. The departments will get 180 days to repay the money to KFC.
- The scheme benefits the Government Departments/ PSUs in many ways. The liquidity position of the Department/ PSU improves as the repayment liability is eased.
- The Department/ PSU will be able to do purchases/ execute works at a competitive price as the Supplier/ Contractor can be assured of immediate payments. More established suppliers would participate in the tendering process as they are assured of payments on time.
