➤ Which international alliance is India signing a headquarters agreement with, granting it diplomatic status and recognition?

- A) Coalition for Disaster Resilient Infrastructure
- B) International Solar Alliance
- C) Global Biofuels Alliance
- D) United Nations
- E) World Health Organization

Answer

C) Global Biofuels Alliance

Event and Location:

- Event: Signing of Headquarters Agreement with Global Biofuels Alliance (GBA)
- Date: Announced on July 17, 2024
- Location: New Delhi, India

Mandates and Objectives:

- GBA Goals:
 - Launch: Initiated by India along with the US and Brazil during the G20 Leadership Summit in September 2023.
 - Purpose: To develop and deploy biofuels, reducing reliance on crude oil and supporting global net-zero carbon emission goals by 2030.
 - Scope: Includes bringing together the largest consumers and producers of biofuels, even non-G20 members.

Significance

- Diplomatic Status: The headquarters agreement grants GBA an independent and international legal persona.
- Similar Alliances: The recognition is akin to the status given to the Coalition for Disaster Resilient Infrastructure (CDRI) and the International Solar Alliance (ISA).
- Exemptions and Privileges: The agreement allows for exemptions, immunities, and privileges to the alliance and its secretariat as per Section-3 of the United Nations (Privileges & Immunities) Act, 1947.

Developments and Challenges

- Formation: GBA's working committee has created a work plan, focusing on assessing country landscapes, drafting policy frameworks, and conducting biofuel workshops.
- Initial Assessments: Mauritius, Tanzania, and Sri Lanka are among the first countries to be assessed for their biofuel potential.
- Policy Recommendations: Based on assessments, policy interventions will be suggested to enhance biofuel production.
- Major Producers Absent: Key crude producers like China, Russia, and Saudi Arabia have not joined the alliance.

Global Impact

- IEA Report: India could triple its biofuel production and consumption over the next five years with supportive policies.
- Market Focus: GBA aims to develop new and existing markets, focusing on regions where biofuel potential is untapped.
- Sustainability Assessments: Accelerating technology deployment and commercialization while ensuring sustainability is a primary goal.

Important Terms Explained:

- Global Biofuels Alliance (GBA): An international coalition aimed at promoting the use of biofuels to reduce carbon emissions.
- Diplomatic Status: Official recognition that grants an organization privileges and immunities in a host country.

Static GK Information:

- India
 - Capital: New Delhi
