➤ What action did China take in response to the US imposing 104% tariffs on Chinese goods?

- A) Filed a complaint against the US in its domestic court
- B) Imposed 104% tariffs on all US goods
- C) Announced 84% tariffs on US goods and imposed export controls
- D) Signed a bilateral free trade agreement with the US
- E) Removed all restrictions on US investments

Answer

C) Announced 84% tariffs on US goods and imposed export controls

Event and Location:

- Event: China imposes 84% tariffs on US goods in retaliation to US's 104% tariffs
- Date: April 2025
- Location: China

Mandates and Objectives:

- Retaliatory Tariff Move: China increased tariffs on US goods from 34% to 84% in direct response to the 104% tariffs imposed by the Trump administration.
- Export Controls: To pressure the US further, China implemented export restrictions on rare earth minerals and strategic resources.
- Corporate Blacklisting: China added 12 US companies to its export control list and placed six firms on its “unreliable entities list”, barring them from trade and investment activities in China.

Mandates and Objectives:

- WTO Action: China filed a formal complaint with the WTO, accusing the US of destabilizing global trade through protectionist measures.
- No Dialogue Policy: China declared it would not engage in trade negotiations under the current escalated circumstances.

Important Terms Explained:

- Unreliable Entities List: A list of foreign companies restricted from doing business in China due to actions seen as harmful to national interests.
- Export Control List: Companies barred from accessing Chinese-origin items that have dual-use or strategic applications.
- Rare Earth Minerals: A group of elements critical to high-tech industries; China is a leading exporter and often uses them as a strategic trade tool.

Important Terms Explained:

- Trade Deficit: The economic condition where a country imports more than it exports; the US had a $295 billion deficit with China in 2024.
- WTO Complaint: A dispute raised by a member nation against another at the World Trade Organization for violating trade rules.
