- A) Iraq
- B) Saudi Arabia
- C) Russia
- D) United Arab Emirates
- E) United States

Answer
C) Russia

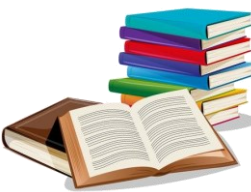

Event and Location:

- Event: India's crude oil imports from Russia hit record 1.9 million barrels/day
- Location: India (import data based on seaborne cargoes)
- Date: November 2025

Mandates and Objectives:

- Mandates: India's refiners ramped up imports of Russian crude oil in November 2025, averaging 1.9 million barrels per day (mb/d), ahead of US sanctions taking effect on Rosneft and Lukoil from November 21.
- Objectives: To secure cost-effective energy supplies and maximize volumes before the new sanctions regime complicates trade, logistics, and payment channels related to Russian oil.

Important Terms Explained:

- Urals Crude: Russia's primary export crude oil blend. It is heavily discounted compared to Brent and Oman/Dubai grades due to sanctions, making it attractive for price-sensitive importers like India.
- G7 Price Cap: A policy introduced by G7 nations to limit the price at which Russian oil can be sold, intended to reduce Russia's oil revenue while maintaining global supply.
- Shadow Fleet / STS Transfers: Informal shipping practices involving unregistered ships, ship-to-ship transfers, or opaque logistics to bypass sanctions and maintain oil exports from sanctioned countries.
