- Date: 2nd February 2026

Mandates and Objectives:

- Mandates: The Supreme Court instructed the Union government to constitute a tribunal for the Pennaiyar river water dispute between Tamil Nadu and Karnataka within one month, under the Inter-State River Water Disputes Act, 1956.
- Objectives: The objective is to resolve the ongoing water-sharing conflict in a legally structured, technical manner and reinforce cooperative federalism as envisioned in Article 262 of the Constitution.

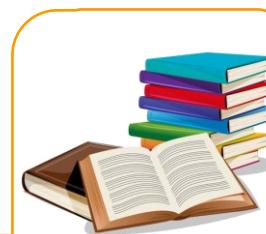

Important Terms Explained:

- Article 262: A constitutional provision allowing Parliament to legislate for adjudication of interstate river water disputes and restricts court jurisdiction once a tribunal mechanism is in place.
- Inter-State River Water Disputes Act, 1956: A legal framework under which the Centre can set up tribunals for resolving disputes over water sharing between states; tribunal decisions are binding.
- 1892 Agreement: A pre-independence water-sharing agreement cited by Tamil Nadu to restrict unilateral construction by upstream states on interstate rivers, including the Pennaiyar.

Tabular Summary:

Parameter	Details
Event name	Supreme Court direction on Pennaiyar River Water Tribunal
Announcement date	2nd February 2026
Location	India – Tamil Nadu and Karnataka
