➢ Under the revised UPSC process for appointing State DGPs, what must states do if they delay sending empanelment proposals?

A) Send the file to the Governor
B) Take approval from the Home Ministry
C) Appoint an acting DGP
D) Seek approval from the High Court
E) Seek approval from the Supreme Court

Answer

E) Seek approval from the Supreme Court

Event and Location:

- Event: UPSC has revised the process for appointment of State Director General of Police (DGP) following directions of the Supreme Court.
- Location: India; applicable to all States
- Date: Reported in March 2026

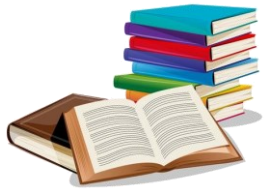
Mandates and Objectives:

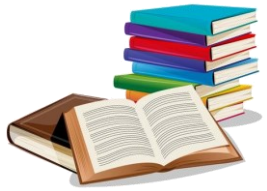
- Mandates: The revised process requires state governments to send proposals for DGP empanelment at least three months before the retirement of the incumbent DGP. If a state delays sending the names of eligible DGP-rank officers, it must first obtain approval from the Supreme Court. The court has also clarified that there is no legal concept of an acting DGP.



/ Liwin's CA Funsta Subscribe /Liwin's CA Funsta

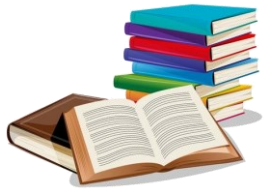
Mandates and Objectives:

- Objectives: The revised rules aim to ensure timely and lawful appointment of state police chiefs, maintain transparency in police leadership selection, prevent irregularities and political interference, and enforce compliance with earlier judicial directions on police reforms.



Important Terms Explained:

- UPSC: The Union Public Service Commission is a constitutional body that, in this context, prepares a panel of eligible senior police officers for appointment as State DGP.
- DGP: The Director General of Police is the head of the police force in a state.
- Empanelment: Empanelment is the process of shortlisting eligible officers for consideration and final selection to a senior post.



Important Terms Explained:

- Acting DGP: An acting DGP refers to a temporary arrangement for the post of police chief, but the article states that the Supreme Court has clarified that such a concept is not legally valid under the applicable guidelines.
- Prakash Singh case: The Prakash Singh case refers to the landmark police reforms case in which the Supreme Court laid down important guidelines for police administration and leadership appointments.
- Attorney General of India: The Attorney General of India is the chief legal advisor to the Government of India, whose opinion was sought by UPSC on delays in DGP empanelment proposals.

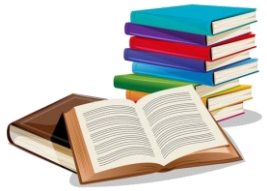
E) Anantavarman Chodaganga Deva

Answer
D) Purushottama Deva

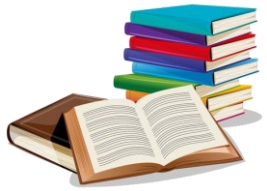
Event and Location:

- Event: A rare medieval Gajapathi inscription linked to King Purushottama Deva has been discovered at the Lakshmi Narasimha Swamy Temple.
- Location: Ramachandrapura Agraharam, Guntur, Andhra Pradesh, India
- Date: Reported in March 2026; inscription believed to date to the 15th century CE



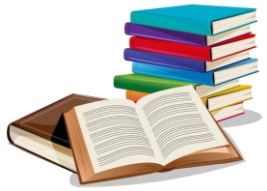
Mandates and Objectives:

- Mandates: The discovery concerns a Telugu inscription engraved on both sides of a stone pillar inside the temple mandapa. Historians and epigraphists believe it is associated with Gajapathi King Purushottama Deva and mentions Kumaraguru Mahapatra, a steward officer under the king. The inscription also records details related to temple administration, worship practices, and ritual offerings.



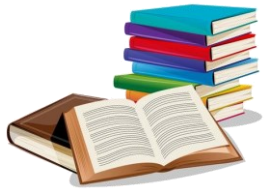
Mandates and Objectives:

- Objectives: The finding helps document the political, administrative, and cultural influence of the Gajapathi dynasty in coastal Andhra and provides historical evidence of medieval linkages between Odisha and Andhra Pradesh.



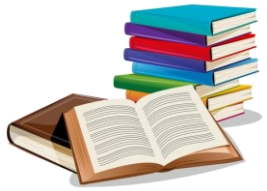
Important Terms Explained:

- Gajapathi inscription: A Gajapathi inscription is a historical engraved record associated with the Gajapathi dynasty, used to document administration, religion, land, and royal authority.
- Purushottama Deva: Purushottama Deva was a prominent ruler of the Gajapathi dynasty of Odisha during the 15th century CE.
- Gajapathi dynasty: The Gajapathi dynasty was a powerful ruling dynasty of eastern India that controlled large parts of present-day Odisha and sections of Andhra Pradesh during the medieval period.



Important Terms Explained:

- Telugu inscription: A Telugu inscription is an engraved historical record written in the Telugu language, often found in temples, pillars, and monuments in South India.
- Kumaraguru Mahapatra: Kumaraguru Mahapatra is named in the inscription as a steward officer serving under Purushottama Deva, indicating an organized administrative structure.



Important Terms Explained:

- Mandapa: A mandapa is a pillared hall or pavilion in a Hindu temple used for religious and ceremonial purposes.
- Kondaveedu Fort: Kondaveedu Fort is a historic fort in Andhra Pradesh, locally linked by tradition to the temple's idol and architectural elements.

➢ The missing upper fragment of a 3,200-year-old statue discovered at Hermopolis Magna in Egypt belongs to which ancient ruler?

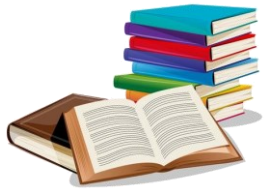
A) Tutankhamun
B) Akhenaten
C) Khufu
D) Ramesses II
E) Amenhotep III

Answer
D) Ramesses II

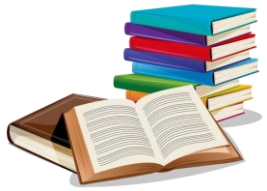
Event and Location:

- Event: Archaeologists in Egypt discovered the missing upper fragment of a 3,200-year-old limestone statue of Pharaoh Ramesses II, completing a long-unsolved archaeological puzzle.
- Location: Hermopolis Magna at modern El Ashmunein, Minya Governorate, Egypt
- Date: Reported in March 2026; breakthrough excavation mentioned for 2024



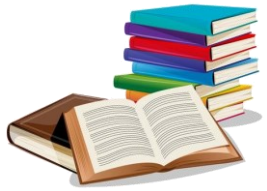
Mandates and Objectives:

- Mandates: A joint archaeological team from the Egyptian Ministry of Tourism and Antiquities and the University of Colorado Boulder unearthed a massive limestone fragment representing the upper part of a seated statue of Ramesses II. The newly found piece measured about 3.8 metres and matched the lower half of the statue that had been discovered in 1930 by Gunther Roeder.
- Objectives: The discovery aims to improve historical understanding of Ramesses II, recover missing parts of major ancient monuments, and deepen knowledge of Hermopolis Magna as an important religious and political centre in ancient Egypt.



Important Terms Explained:

- Ramesses II: Ramesses II, also known as Ramesses the Great, was one of the most powerful pharaohs of ancient Egypt and ruled from 1279 BCE to 1213 BCE during the 19th Dynasty.
- Hermopolis Magna: Hermopolis Magna was an important ancient Egyptian city, known earlier as Khemnu, and was a major religious centre dedicated to Thoth.
- Thoth: Thoth was the ancient Egyptian god associated with wisdom, writing, knowledge, and learning, often depicted with the head of an ibis.



Important Terms Explained:

- Limestone statue: A limestone statue is a sculptural monument carved from limestone, a commonly used material in ancient Egyptian architecture and art.
- Double Crown: The Double Crown symbolized the unity of Upper Egypt and Lower Egypt and was worn by pharaohs to represent rule over both lands.
- 19th Dynasty: The 19th Dynasty was a ruling dynasty of ancient Egypt during the New Kingdom, known for powerful rulers such as Ramesses II.
