- Inheritance and Succession:
 - Inheritance means transfer of property, rights, and obligations after a person's death.
 - Succession refers to the legal process through which property passes to heirs.
 - The Bill proposes uniform rules in these matters.
- Article 44 of the Constitution:
 - Article 44 is part of the Directive Principles of State Policy (DPSP).
 - It states that the State shall endeavor to secure for citizens a Uniform Civil Code throughout the territory of India.

Important Terms Explained:

- Directive Principles of State Policy (DPSP):
 - DPSPs are guidelines to the government for governance and law-making.
 - They are non-justiciable, meaning they are not enforceable in court.
 - Their implementation depends on legislative and political will.
- Fifth and Sixth Schedules:
 - These constitutional provisions protect the rights and customs of tribal communities.
 - Because of these protections, Scheduled Tribes (STs) are exempted under the proposed law.

Tabular Summary:

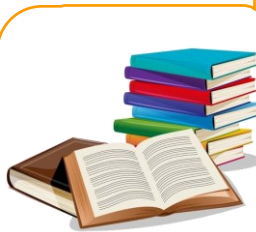

Parameter	Details

Comparison	Gujarat became the second state after Uttarakhand (2024) to pass UCC law
Debate around bill	Religious freedom, cultural diversity, and legal uniformity

- Why did the Government of India form 7 empowered committees in March 2026?
- A) To prepare for the next General Election
 - B) To deal with the impact of the West Asia crisis on economy, energy, supply chains, and security
 - C) To implement a new education policy
 - D) To review state budgets
 - E) To conduct a population census

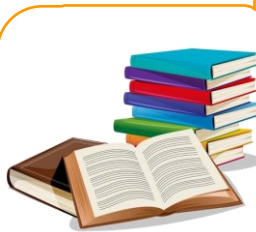

Answer

B) To deal with the impact of the West Asia crisis on economy, energy, supply chains, and security

Event and Location:

- Event: India formed 7 empowered committees to respond to the growing West Asia crisis.
- Location: India.
- Date: March 25, 2026.

Mandates and Objectives:

- Mandates: The 7 empowered panels have been formed to monitor and address the wide-ranging effects of the West Asia crisis on India.

Mandates and Objectives:

- Objectives: Their key objectives are:
 - To assess the immediate and long-term impact of the crisis on energy security, trade, inflation, and national security
 - To ensure real-time monitoring and rapid decision-making
 - To strengthen inter-ministerial coordination
 - To identify alternative import sources
 - To manage price volatility
 - To ensure the availability of essential goods
 - To protect India from possible economic shocks
 - To maintain public confidence through effective communication

Important Terms Explained:

- West Asia Crisis:
 - It refers to the escalating geopolitical tensions and instability in the West Asia region.
 - Such crises can affect global oil supply, shipping routes, trade, and security.
- Empowered Committees / Panels:
 - These are high-level government groups given authority to monitor a situation and coordinate response measures.
 - They help in quick policy action, real-time assessment, and multi-sectoral planning.

Important Terms Explained:

- Strait of Hormuz:
 - It is one of the world's most important oil transit chokepoints.
 - A large share of global crude oil passes through this route.
 - Any disruption here can affect countries like India, which depend heavily on energy imports.
- Supply Chain Bottlenecks:
 - These are disruptions in the movement of raw materials, goods, or services across production and transport networks.
 - They can lead to delays, shortages, and rising prices.

Important Terms Explained:

- LNG:
 - LNG stands for Liquefied Natural Gas.
 - It is natural gas cooled into liquid form for easier storage and transport.
 - It is an important part of India's energy imports.
- Strategic Reserves:
 - These are emergency stockpiles of essential resources such as crude oil or fuel.
 - They are maintained to deal with sudden supply disruptions or price spikes.

Important Terms Explained:

- Inflationary Pressures:
 - These refer to factors that push the overall price level upward.
 - Rising fuel and commodity prices during global crises often create inflationary pressure.
- Misinformation:
 - False or misleading information spread intentionally or unintentionally.
 - During crises, controlling misinformation is essential to prevent panic and confusion.

Tabular Summary:

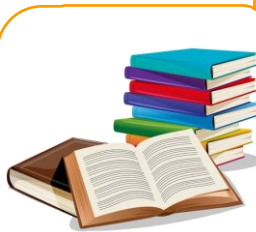

Parameter	Details
Event name	India formed 7 empowered committees to address the West Asia crisis.
Date and direction	The move was reported on March 25, 2026, under the direction of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.
Main purpose	To manage the crisis impact on economy, energy supplies, inflation, supply chains, logistics, and national security.
Reason for concern	Rising tensions in West Asia, possible disruption in oil supply, rising crude oil prices, and risks to shipping routes like the Strait of Hormuz.
Major committees	Panels cover Defence & External Affairs, Economy & Supply Chains, Energy Security, Agriculture & Fertilisers, Essential Commodities, Transport & Logistics, and Information & Communication.
Key responsibilities	Monitoring risks, ensuring fuel supply, managing price volatility, maintaining essential goods availability, protecting trade routes, and countering misinformation.
Significance	The committees reflect India's proactive crisis-preparedness strategy through real-time monitoring, fast decision-making, and inter-ministerial coordination.

➤ The Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Amendment Bill, 2026 was passed by which House of Parliament on March 24, 2026?

- A) Rajya Sabha
- B) Lok Sabha
- C) Legislative Council
- D) Constituent Assembly
- E) State Assembly

Answer
B) Lok Sabha.

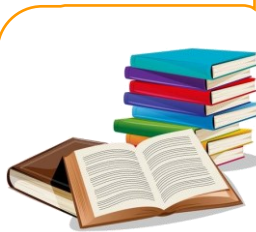

Event and Location:

- Event: The Lok Sabha passed the Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Amendment Bill, 2026, proposing changes to the legal definition of transgender persons.
- Location: India.
- Date: March 24, 2026.

Mandates and Objectives:

- Mandates: The Bill seeks to redefine the term transgender by excluding self-perceived gender identity and sexual orientation from its scope, while focusing on traditionally recognized transgender communities, persons with intersex variations, and medically certified cases.
- Objectives: The amendment aims to bring clarity in implementation, identify intended beneficiaries of legal protections and welfare measures, and strengthen safeguards through stricter punishments for offences against transgender persons.

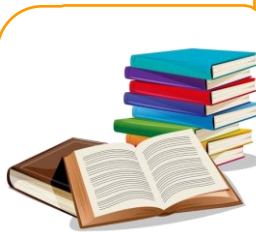

Important Terms Explained:

- Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Amendment Bill, 2026: A legislative amendment passed by the Lok Sabha to revise the definition of transgender persons and modify protection-related provisions under the existing law.
- Transgender: Under the amended approach described in the article, the term is proposed to apply to traditionally recognized transgender communities, persons with intersex conditions, and certain medically certified individuals, rather than including self-perceived gender identity or sexual orientation.
- Intersex variations: Biological or congenital variations in sex characteristics that may not fit typical binary definitions of male or female.

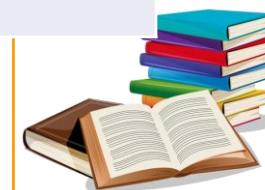

Important Terms Explained:

- Medical authority: A designated medical board led by senior medical officials that may verify and certify transgender identity under the proposed framework.
- NALSA judgment: The 2014 Supreme Court judgment in NALSA vs Union of India that recognized gender identity and the right of individuals to self-identify their gender.
- Self-identification: The principle that an individual has the right to determine and declare their own gender identity without compulsory medical certification.

Tabular Summary:

Parameter	Details
Event name	Passage of the Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Amendment Bill, 2026.
Date	March 24, 2026.
Location	India.
Passed by	Lok Sabha.
Main change	The Bill redefines transgender status by excluding self-perceived gender identity and sexual orientation from the scope described in the article.
Groups included	Traditionally recognized communities such as hijras, kinnars, aravanis, jogtas, and persons with intersex variations.
New provision	Identity verification may involve a designated medical authority or medical board.
Significance	The Bill has triggered debate over legal recognition, inclusivity, and the right to self-identification.

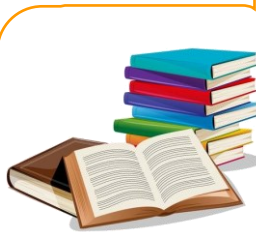

➤ According to the Supreme Court ruling explained in the article, Scheduled Caste status under the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950 is available only to persons professing which religions?

- A) Hinduism, Islam and Christianity
- B) Hinduism, Sikhism and Buddhism
- C) Sikhism, Christianity and Buddhism
- D) Hinduism, Jainism and Buddhism
- E) Islam, Sikhism and Buddhism

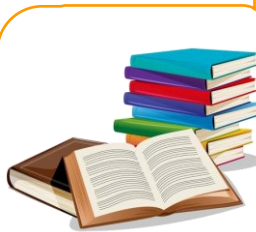

Answer

B) Hinduism, Sikhism and Buddhism.

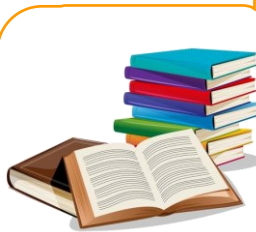

Event and Location:

- Event: The Supreme Court of India ruled that Scheduled Caste status under the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950 is limited to persons professing Hinduism, Sikhism, or Buddhism, and conversion to other religions ends such eligibility.
- Location: India.
- Date: March 25, 2026.

Mandates and Objectives:

- Mandates: The ruling clarifies the legal position that a person who converts to a religion outside the religions recognized under the 1950 Order cannot continue to claim SC status or related statutory protections based only on birth background.
- Objectives: The judgment aims to uphold the constitutional framework governing Scheduled Caste classification, preserve the legal boundaries of reservation and protection laws, and reaffirm that any change in SC eligibility must follow the constitutional and legislative process.

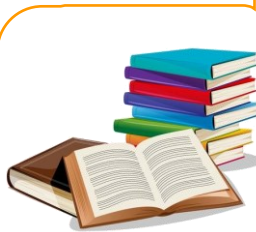

Important Terms Explained:

- Scheduled Caste: A constitutionally recognized category of historically disadvantaged communities entitled to specific safeguards, reservations, and legal protections in India.
- Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950: A presidential order issued under the Constitution that specifies which communities qualify as Scheduled Castes and limits eligibility on the basis of religion.
- Clause 3: The provision in the 1950 Order that originally restricted SC status to persons professing Hinduism, and was later expanded to include Sikhism and Buddhism.

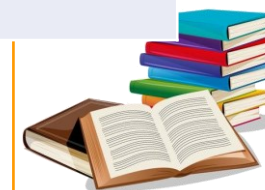

Important Terms Explained:

- SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act: A law enacted to protect members of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes from discrimination, violence, and atrocities.
- Article 341: The constitutional provision under which the President of India notifies the list of Scheduled Castes, and any change requires parliamentary approval.

Tabular Summary:

Parameter	Details
Event name	Supreme Court ruling on Scheduled Caste status after religious conversion.
Date	March 25, 2026.
Location	India.
Court position	SC status applies only to persons professing Hinduism, Sikhism, or Buddhism under the 1950 Order.
Key legal basis	The ruling relies on Clause 3 of the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950.
Effect of conversion	Conversion to religions such as Christianity or Islam ends SC eligibility under the framework described in the article.
Impact on protection laws	Loss of SC status also affects eligibility for protection under the SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act.
Wider significance	The judgment reinforces that changes in SC classification must come through constitutional and parliamentary process.
