➤ Which international treaty is popularly known as the Constitution of the Oceans?

- A) UNCLOS
- B) Kyoto Protocol
- C) Basel Convention
- D) Bretton Woods Agreement
- E) TRIPS Agreement

Answer
A) UNCLOS.

Event and Location:

- Event: The Islamabad Impasse highlights the legal and strategic confrontation over maritime rights in the Strait of Hormuz following failed U.S.-Iran negotiations.
- Location: Strait of Hormuz, between Iran and Oman, with diplomatic developments linked to Islamabad.
- Date: April 15, 2026.

Mandates and Objectives:

- Mandates: The issue centres on competing interpretations of UNCLOS, with Iran imposing a security toll on vessels in the Strait of Hormuz and the United States responding with a naval blockade while both sides justify their actions through differing views on maritime passage rights.
- Objectives: It aims to define the legal rights of coastal and user states in an international strait, explain the difference between Transit Passage and Innocent Passage, and assess how maritime law affects global trade, security, and freedom of navigation.

Important Terms Explained:

- UNCLOS: The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea is the international legal framework governing maritime zones, navigation rights, ocean resources, and marine environmental protection.
- Strait of Hormuz: A strategically important international waterway through which a major share of global energy trade passes and which lies between Iran and Oman.
- Transit Passage: A navigational right under UNCLOS that allows ships and aircraft to pass continuously and expeditiously through international straits without suspension or tolls.

Important Terms Explained:

- Innocent Passage: A right allowing foreign vessels to pass through a state's territorial sea so long as the passage is peaceful and not prejudicial to the security of the coastal state.
- Territorial Sea: The maritime zone extending up to 12 nautical miles from a coastal state's baseline where the state exercises sovereignty subject to certain navigation rights of foreign vessels.
- Exclusive Economic Zone: A maritime zone extending up to 200 nautical miles from the baseline in which a coastal state has sovereign rights over natural resources.
- ITLOS: The International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea is the specialised judicial body that settles disputes related to the interpretation and application of UNCLOS.

Tabular Summary:

Parameter	Details
Event name	The Islamabad Impasse and the Strait of Hormuz maritime dispute.
Date	April 15, 2026.
Location	Strait of Hormuz and Islamabad-linked diplomatic context.
Core legal issue	The dispute concerns the legality of Iranian tolls and the U.S. naval blockade under UNCLOS.
Main legal concepts	The central debate is between Transit Passage and Innocent Passage in an international strait.
Geographic significance	The Strait of Hormuz is about 21 nautical miles wide at its narrowest point and is bordered by Iran and Oman.
Institutional framework	UNCLOS entered into force on November 16, 1994, and operates through bodies such as ISA and ITLOS.
Strategic significance	The standoff affects global trade, oil prices, maritime security, and the wider interpretation of international law.
