➤ What key legal principle did the United Nations General Assembly affirm in its first Political Declaration on sea-level rise?

- A) Automatic dissolution of island states
- B) Continuity of statehood and sovereignty
- C) Revision of all maritime boundaries
- D) Suspension of UNCLOS provisions
- E) Mandatory relocation of coastal populations

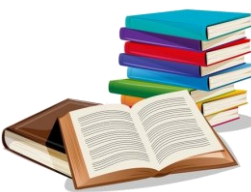

Answer

B) Continuity of statehood and sovereignty.

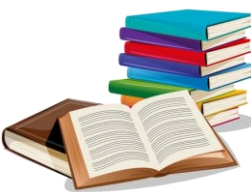

Event and Location:

- Event: The United Nations General Assembly adopted its first Political Declaration on sea-level rise, addressing the legal, environmental, economic and humanitarian consequences of rising seas.
- Location: New York, United States.
- Date: 24 September 2026.

Mandates and Objectives:

- Mandates: The declaration affirms continuity of statehood and sovereignty despite sea-level rise, supports stability of existing maritime zones under UNCLOS, and calls for stronger adaptation, resilience, early warning systems and climate finance.

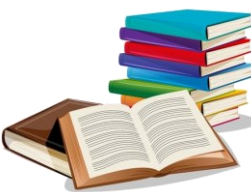

Mandates and Objectives:

- Objectives: The declaration seeks to protect vulnerable island and low-lying states, strengthen legal certainty over maritime rights, improve climate resilience and support populations, livelihoods, infrastructure, culture and heritage threatened by rising sea levels.

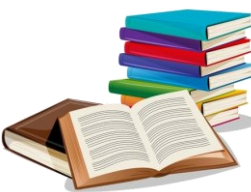

Important Terms Explained:

- Small Island Developing States (SIDS): A group of small island countries that face particular economic, environmental and climate vulnerabilities, including severe exposure to sea-level rise.

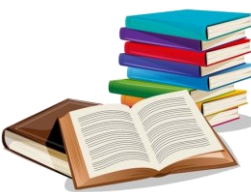

Important Terms Explained:

- United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS): The international legal framework governing maritime zones, coastal state rights and jurisdiction over marine areas and resources.

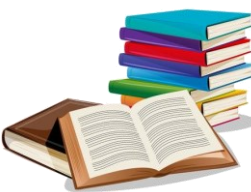

Important Terms Explained:

- Continuity of Statehood: The principle that a state may continue to retain its legal identity, sovereignty and international status even if climate-related sea-level rise severely affects its physical territory.

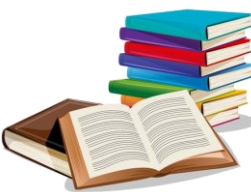

Important Terms Explained:

- Maritime Zones: Sea areas over which coastal states exercise different forms of sovereignty, jurisdiction or resource rights under international law.

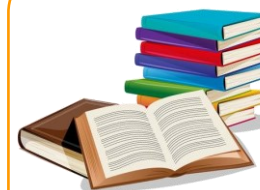

Important Terms Explained:

- Climate Finance: Financial support directed toward mitigation, adaptation and resilience measures, particularly in developing and climate-vulnerable countries.

Tabular Summary:

Parameter	Details
